Holiday Death Toll Now 352

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic
accidents over the Memorial Day weekend snuffed out the lives of hundreds of Americans
and safety experts feared today
the long holiday period might produce a record toll.

The total number of deaths on highways stood at 352 early today.

Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, said
traffic fatalities are running
about 5 per cent less than last year's three-day Memorial Day weekend. However, he added,
since this year the respite spans
four days, total traffic deaths-
barring a trend reversal—will hit a new Memorial day weekend high.

"Reports to this time indicate
the final total will fall within the 650-750 range estimated by the council at the start of the holiday," Pyle said. The final count will include traffic deaths from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Tues-
day.

The all-time high for any holiday was 720 for the three-day
1965 Christmas holiday period.
Highest summertime traffic toll
was last year's July 4 three-day
holiday when 636 died.

Pyle said the increasing fatality rate over the past two years
reflects the growing number of drivers on the nation's highways
and underlines "the urgency
with which states must adopt
new safety programs that meet
federal standards."

Last year 542 persons died in traffic accidents over the three-
day holiday, a record for a Memorial Day observance of any length. The most recent four-day Memorial Day weekend was in 1961, when there were 462 highway deaths.

Small Boats Are Led to Safety

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet
naval supply ship led 13 small Japanese fishing boats 67 miles
to safety after ice threatened to crush them in the Sea of Ok-
hotsk, 1,200 miles north of Japan, Tass reported today from Magadan.

The Soviet news agency said
the 2,115-ton Angara needed 36
hours for the rescue because a southwest wind closed the ice
near Taygonos, on the Soviet Union's northwest coast.

Can't Assess Oil Drilling Equipment

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court up-
held today a Pulaski Chancery Court ruling that exempted oil
drilling equipment from tax assessment.

The Supreme Court held that
the equipment came under exemptions granted equipment
used in the production of natural resources.

It said Jack M. Wolfe, doing
business as the Wolfe Drilling Co., should be reimbursed for
the $4,766 in taxes he paid under protest on oil drilling equipment he moved from Oklahoma
to Arkansas.

The high court also:
Reversed and remanded for
new trial a circuit court award
in Washington County of $1,000
to Walter Hagar for hall damage to his house and trailer.
The reversal in favor of Home
Mutual Fire Insurance Co. came
because hearsay evidence was admitted in the trial, the high court said.

Affirmed Faulkner Chancery
Court's ruling that Brown
Broadcast, Inc., owner of radio station KVEE in Conway, was liable to terms of contract between a Memphis firm and the former owners of the station.
The previous owners and Pepper Sound Studio, Inc., entered into a contract in 1964 in which Pepper leased certain sound
production and promotional materials to the station over a five-
year period.

In 1965, Brown purchased the station and the court held that it was liable for the contract.

Investigating Moonshine

IDABEL, Okla. (AP)—Federal
agents, with a special office
set up in Idabel, are continuing
an investigation into alleged moonshine operations that has resulted in arrest of 10 persons,
including a sheriff and a state
liquor agent.

Held on charges filed by federal Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit officers were Green Simp-
son and Roben Johnston, both of Idabel. Agents said they were arrested Saturday and released
on $2,000 bond.

Either persons were arrested
Friday after a federal grand jury returned secret indictments
the day before. They were charged with a moonshine conspiracy, and were released on $2,000 bond each.

Simpson and Johnston were
not indicted by the grand jury.
Those arrested Friday included McCurtain County Sheriff
Gene Thorp and a state liquor
agent, Don Calvin Skieens of Wright City, Okla. Both resigned their posts after the indictments were revealed.

7 Persons Die in House Fire

UNION MILLS, N.C. (AP)— Seven persons, a woman and her six grandchildren, died today in a fire that destroyed
their two-story frame house at Union Mills nine miles north of Rutherfordton.

Dead are Mrs. Roberta Bun-
dick, about 60; Jeff Bay-
nard, 11; his brothers Mike, 9;
David, 7; Johnny 4; Jack 2; and their one-year-old sister, Teresa.

The father, Bulo Baynard,
was at work in a textile mill
when the fire broke out about 3
a.m.

The children's mother died of cancer in January, a neighbor
said.

The potato is said to have

Weather Varies Widely Over Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Property-destroying torna-
does, hail and heavy rains
raked large sections of the nation Sunday night while unusually warm weather lingered
from eastern New Mexico to Georgia.

Funnel clouds were reported
in Colorado, Kansas, Illinois, Indiana and Nevada. A tornado
slammed into two homes in Jefferson County, Mo., shearing off
the roof of one and destroying the other. There were no injuries.

High winds accompanying a severe thunderstorm blew down
one building and ripped the roof
off another in Tupelo, Miss. Sunday night, but no injuries were reported.

Marble-size hail pelted Huntington and Charleston, W. Va., and wind gusts to 50 miles an hour and heavy rains hit the area.

Indiana also was hit by spring
storms. Funnel clouds were reported at Coatesville, Goldsmith
and Fort Branch, but no personal injury or property damage
was reported.

Heavy rain was reported in 10
states from West Virginia to Washington. Nearly 1 1/2 inches of rain deluged Parkersburg, W.
Va. Lamar, Colo., recorded .94
of an inch of precipitation and Lubbock, Tex., .85 of an inch.

A record high temperature of 99 degrees was set Sunday at Macon, Ga. Temperatures early
evacuated from Egypt and that
today ranged from 33 at Old Town, Maine, to 80 at Needles,
Calif., and Brownsville, Tex.

EGYPT FIRES (From Page One)

must reach our goals." In Tel Aviv, Eshkol said in a broadcast to the nation that Israel would continue to insist on its rights by diplomatic means.
But he added: "Our armed forces are thoroughly prepared
to defend Israel."

Israel announced its forces
captured a five-man Egyptian
patrol inside Israeli territory in the Negev Desert Sunday. An Egyptian military spokesman in Cairo confirmed the patrol was captured in Israeli territory
while scouting.

He said the Egyptian Foreign Office notified Lt. Gen. Odd Bull
of Norway, chief of the U.N.
truce supervision organization
in Palestine, and requested that the captured men be released by Israel to "avoid consequences."

At U.N. headquarters in New York, the Security Council
meets today to take up Secretary-General U Thant's report
expressing fear that a clash
over the shipping blockade
would "inevitably set off a general conflict in the Near East."

Also before the council were Egyptian charges of eight cases
of Israeli aggression since 1949,
including a recent "mobilization
for the invasion of Syria." Egypt asked that its complaints
be "considered urgently."

Diplomatic sources said
council debate probably would lead to an appeal for restraint
on all sides.

The United Nations said about 100 of the 3,400 men of the U.N.
Middle East force have been
evacuated from Egypt and that Canada's 720 men would leave
Town, Maine, to 80 at Needles,
Calif., and Brownsville, Tex.

Four Persons Drowned in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Four persons drowned in Arkansas during the past weekend,
including two children.

Oble Neil Anderson, 12, son
of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Anderson of Arkadelphia, drowned
Sunday morning when the boat
in which he was a passenger
capsized in swift water on the Caddo River near DeGray Dam,
about eight miles north of Arkadelphia.

Virginia Stain, 12, daughter of Mrs. Harvey Mathes of Plum-merville, drowned Saturday afternoon while swimming in a stockpond near her home.

John Duncan, 21, of Fayetteville, drowned Saturday afternoon while attempting to save
a companion, Dale Marshall, 24,
of Fayetteville, who fell from
the boat in which they were fishing on Indian Creek near Beaver Dam, about 25 miles northeast of Rogers. Marshall also drowned.

Little Change in Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Little change is expected in Arkansas' weather for the next two to three days. A continuation of partly cloudy skies and warm temperatures is expected.

Maximum temperatures will be in the 80s and low 90s with the state's weather being
governed by a stationary
front across southern Missouri
and a weak high pressure system which covers the state.

Isolated afternoon or evening
showers and thundershowers
are forecast, mainly in the northern sections.

Overnight lows ranged from 59 at Calico Rock to 68 at Bly-theville. Rainfall for the past 24 hours was generally under one-tenth of an inch.

SHOWER FOR MISS JAN GAINES

Miss Jan Gaines of Hope, student at Henderson State College, bride elect of George H. Wright, Jr., was honored with a lingerie shower recently at the home of Mrs. R. M. Arnold on Riverside Drive in Arkadelphia, Arkansas. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Dick Batson, Mrs. Jack Glover and Miss Barbara Glover. The house was decorated with roses from the Dallas Hollbrook garden. The dining table decorations were in yellow and green, the bride's chosen colors, featuring yellow daisies.

Punch, coffee, heart shaped cookies and wedding-bell shaped sandwiches were served to 35 guests present.

Mrs. R. C. Arnold, sister of the bride-elect, Mrs. Mike Knickerbocker, and Mrs. Mary McRae Davis assisted in serving.

Miss Gaines chose a frock from her trousseau of two shades of tan with which she wore a yellow cymbidium orchid, a gift of the hostesses.

Out of town guests for the occasion were the bride's elects mother, Mrs. James Gaines, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Carla Lloyd, all of Hope.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

On Saturday, May 13, Miss Suzanne Booth, bride-elect of Kelly White, was honored with a brunch at the Heritage House by Mrs. George Frazier and Mrs. Thompson Evans, Jr.

Daisy corsages were presented to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Duffie Booth, her grandmother, Mrs. Emory Thompson, and her fiancé's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ada Nell White and Mrs. Lois Harris, both of Mt. Ida.

Majestic daisies centered the dining table, and place cards decorated with daisies were for 12 guests, including two out-of-town friends, Mrs. Ronnie Formby, Ft. Rucker, Ala., and Mrs. Bob Arnold, Arkadelphia.

A "fun" gift marked the place of the honoree. Later, the hostesses presented her a gift of china.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON AT COUNTRY CLUB

Pink daisies and Queen Anne's Lace graced the Hope Country Club for the monthly Ladies' Bridge Luncheon held Thursday, May 25. After a delicious pot-luck luncheon was served to 20, bridge was played at 5 tables.

High scorer for the afternoon was Mrs. Marian Holder; second high was Mrs. John Hatley; and the game prize went to Mrs. L. L. Webb. Hostesses: Mrs. Carl Bramlett, Mrs. Mike McMurrugh, and Mrs. Charles Wilhite.

Coming, Going

M-Sgt. and Mrs. H. H. Fleisher and 4 children, Holloman AFB, N.M., have been with her mother, Mrs. Stella Yates, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fleisher, Shover Springs, while attending services for a brother, Alfred Fleisher, who was killed in an automobile accident in New York.

CPO Louis Sutton, Jr., Mrs. Sutton and 3 sons arrived Friday night from Fayetteville to see Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sutton. The family has just returned from a 3-year tour of duty in Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. "Speedy" Hutson, Little Rock, visited Mrs. Claudia Hutson this weekend.

Mrs. Joe Barentine and family have returned to Arkadelphia after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. O.H. Allen.

Coming, Going

Arthur Strech and Paul Klipsch flew to Little Rock Saturday for the Shrine Ceremonial, where Mr. Strech became a member.

Mr. and Mrs. Cordis Drake have returned to Dallas after visiting his father, Tom Drake, and two sisters in Crossett, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Formby in Patmos and a brother in Chicago, Ill.

Dora Ann King, Miss Hope and a recent graduate of Ouachita Baptist University, left today (Monday) with the Ouachita Singers for the Southern Baptist Convention in Miami, Fla. During their week's stay in Florida, they will also visit the Baptist Church in Titusville, Fla., where Bill Flanders formerly of Hope, is music director.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kelly attended a reunion of his Brinkley High School Class of 1927 on May 19 in Brinkley. Among those attending was the Superintendent of Schools at the time of the class' graduation. He is 87 now and living in Upland, Calif., with his wife, who drove him to the reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Moore, Dallas, spent the weekend with Mrs. K. E. Ambrose. On Saturday they drove to El Dorado to see Dr. and Mrs. Jack Ambrose and family.

Mrs. Dub Davis of Vera's fashion has gone to Market in Dallas this week.

Miss World to Wed American

LONDON (AP) — Reita Faria, 23-year-old Miss World, said Sunday she is going to marry a handsome American with whom she fell in love after a 48-hour courtship.

The Indian beauty said she has been secretly engaged since February to David Gorton, 31, a Los Angeles lawyer.

When Miss Faria won the beauty title last November she reportedly was intending to marry a man back home, Osborne Lobo, 29, a tea planter.

But, she said, "an astrologer told me that I would marry a man I met during my reign as Miss World. That ruled out Osborne."

Pre-Nuptial Party

The Dahmer Home in Poncha-toula was the setting for a pre-nuptial "happening" on Sunday, May 21st, from 12 until 2 p.m. honoring Miss Edwina Whitman and Mr. Phillip Carruth.

Magnolia blossoms, greenery and white tapers graced the living and dining rooms, while a profusion of yellow and bronze day lilies were used in the den.

Miss Whitman was attractively attired in a white and black linen sheath, and Mrs. James E. Reno, mother of the prospective groom, wore a blue and white crepe creation.

Hosts for the party were Mrs. John Jacob Dahmer and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Summers of New Orleans. A gift from their hosts was presented to the honorees, and corsages to both "Winnie" and Mrs. Reno.

Many friends and relatives of the Carruth family were present to greet the young couple, whose wedding will be solemnized in Hope, Arkansas, on Sunday, June 4th.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justus Edward Whitman of Hope, Ark.

Celebrated Just a Bit Too Much

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — George Buss, 27-year-old Allentown cement factory worker, went out on the town Friday night to celebrate his impending marriage and landed in jail on charges of being drunk and disorderly.

Saturday at 2:30 p.m., the scheduled time of his marriage, Buss, unable to raise $309 bail, was still in jail.

Alderman Thomas Miller learned of Buss's plight and brought he bride-to-be, Arlene Seipney, 29, of Allentown, to the station house.

With patrolmen David Howells and William March serving as witnesses, and police Capt. William McClafferty as best man, Miller married the couple.

Smith Bats Sox Over the Orioles

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Reggie Smith has made a quick round trip from outfield to infield and back—with a stopover on the Boston Red Sox' bench.

But the versatile rookie still looks best to Manager Dick Williams when he's circling the bases.

Smith, an early-season disappointment at bat for the hard-hitting Red Sox, broke loose Sunday by stroking three hits and flashing his speed to score three runs in a 4-3 Boston victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Elsewhere, the Detroit Tigers trimmed Washington 3-1 and climbed within one-half game of the American League-leading Chicago White Sox, who were blanked by California 5-0. The New York Yankees shut out Cleveland 5-0 and Minnesota divided a doubleheader with Kansas City, winning the first game 4-3 and dropping the nightcap 7-2.

Pittsburgh edged Cincinnati 3-2, St. Louis downed Philadelphia 8-3, San Francisco topped Los Angeles 4-1 and the New York Mets beat Atlanta 6-3 before bowing 7-3 in the second game of their doubleheader. Houston and the Chicago Cubs were rained out.

Smith, a .320 switch-hitter and All-Star center fielder for Williams' Toronto club in the International League last year, followed his manager up to the Red Sox this spring. He was switched to second base when training camp injuries sidelined rookie Mike Andrews and hold-over George Smith.

Reggie's batting average dipped below .200, however, and Andrews bounced back to claim the second base job. Then, after an eight-game sojourn on the bench, Smith was returned to center field — and began hitting.

California's Jim McGlothlin stopped the White Sox on six hits for his fourth victory in five decisions while two Chicago errors contributed to three Angel runs. Don Mincher's double and Al Wei's boot produced a run in the fourth and Ken Berry's misplay on a single by Jim Fregosi helped the Angels push over two more in the eighth.

Denny McLain, with last-out relief by Fred Gladding, hurled the Tigers past Washington before a crowd of 52,357 at Detroit — the largest in the majors this season. Dick McAuliffe's sacrifice fly and run-scoring singles by Willie Horton and Jim Northrup capped the Tigers' deciding sixth-inning flurry against loser Pete Richter.

Mel Stottlemyre fired a five-hitter, Mickey Mantle crashed his 11th homer and Charlie Smith hit his first circuit of the season as the Yankees throttled the Indians at Cleveland. Stottlemyre squared his record at 4-4 with his third shutout of the year.

Bob Allison drilled a two-run double in the seventh inning, took third on an infield out and scored on a wild pitch by Chuck Dobson, keying the Twins' first-game victory at Kansas City and helping Dean Chance become the first AL pitcher to win eight games.

But two more doubles by Allison in the nightcap couldn't prevent Jim Kaat, a 25-game winner for Minnesota, in 1966, from taking his sixth loss in seven decisions. The A's tagged Kaat for three runs in the third inning, Mike Hersberger's two-run single climaxing the burst, and added four wrapup runs in the eighth.

Campbell Did Not Miss a 4 Foot Putt

FORMBY, England (AP) — "If you think I came 3,000 miles to miss a 4-foot putt, you're wrong."

The speaker was big Bill Campbell, who led the 37-strong American challenge for the British Amateur Golf Championship today.

"This is probably going to be my last British Amateur and it's one I want to win," said big Bill. "I'm in a competitive mood — that means I'm kind of quiet. But if you're playing well the shots work out for themselves."

Campbell, 44-year-old campaigner from Huntington, W. Va., won all his four matches in the Walker Cup which saw a 13-7 American triumph over the British Isles at Sandwich a week ago.

Campbell played better golf at Sandwich than he's ever played,

Barber Is Winner at Okla. City

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Miller Barber smiled in the sunshine of victory today after beating Gary Player in a playoff for the Oklahoma City Open Golf Tournament title after rain delayed play of the final round for one hour and 45 minutes.

"I didn't remember it felt so good," said Barber, who rolled in a two-foot birdie putt on the third hole of a sudden-death playoff. "This is nice. I'm very, very pleased."

Barber's only other victory in a nine-year professional tour career was the 1964 Cajun Classic. Here he was the unheralded challenger as he steadily pulled into a tie with Player on the back nine, and then birdied the final hole to cause the playoff.

Player, golfing in the three-some in front of Barber, finished with a birdie and had taken a momentary lead.

"It's kind of hard sitting there on No. 18 and knowing you've got to make a birdie to halve and force a playoff," Barber said. "This has given me a brighter outlook. Everybody has helped me.

"When you're as bad a player as I am, you need all the help you can get," Barber said.

But Barber wasn't in Barber's bag of tricks during the four rounds and three extra holes here. He played steady, determined golf, finishing 10 strokes under par with a 278 total.

Barber and Player both had 68s Sunday, being tied with young Dave Stockton after 54 holes. Stockton opened strongly in the final round, going four strokes under par, but he shot a five-over-par 41 on the back to limp in with a 73.

George Archer had a 280 total, good for third place, and Billy Casper and Kermit Zarley were at 282. Stockton and Bob Charles, who fired a 67 Sunday, were tied for sixth at 283.

First prize money was $13,200, and Player took home $7,922 for second.

Rain interrupted play while the leaders were on the front nine, but though heavy skies threatened, the tournament continued. By the time Barber dropped his putt on the par 5, 553-yard third hole, sunshine bathed the Quail Creek Golf and Country Club course.

The watermelon has been cultivated for more than 4,000 years, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Americans Hope to Win Big Race

By DALE BURGESS
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — American auto race drivers, who have watched a Scotsman and an Englishman wheel into Victory Lane for two straight years, have sound hopes of ending the trend Tuesday in the 51st 500-mile Memorial Day race.

Parnelli Jones of Torrance, Calif., a former winner, was virtually conceded his second victory in the event if his revolutionary STP-Pratt & Whitney turbine car holds together for the distance.

Italian-born but thoroughly Americanized Mario Andretti, Nazareth, Pa., will start from the No. 1 position and carry No. 1 on his car. He earned the numerals separately, the pole start with a record 168.982 qualifying speed in a Brawner Hawk Ford, the one painted on his car by winning the U.S. Auto Club championship last year.

The front row will be rounded out by international racer Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., one of the game's smoothest drivers, in one of his own Eagle Fords, and Gordon Johncock of Hastings, Mich., who finished third last year, in a Gerhardt-Ford.

Although Jones' qualifying speed earned him only a second-row start, he had been babying an ailing gear box on the 10-mile trial run. After a new transmission was built by an Indianapolis firm specializing in helicopter gears, Jones showed in practice he could pass anybody in the field.

Jones, 1963 winner, will share the second row with A. J. Foyt Jr. of Houston, Tex., the 1962 and 1964 winner, and Foyt's teammate, former motorcycle champion Joe Leonard, San Jose, Calif., in Foyt-designed Coyote Fords.

The third row lineup will be Lloyd Ruby, Wichita Falls, Tex., who was winning the '66 race until his engine failed, and brothers Bobby and Al Unser of a famous Albuquerque, N.M.,

and all have been eliminated.

mechanical troubles and late qualifications left the five foreign starters far back in the field. Jim Clark of Scotland, 1965 winner, will start 16th; Denis Hulme of New Zealand 24th; Jackie Stewart of Scotland 29th; 1966 winner Graham Hill of England 31st and Jochen Rindt of Austria 32nd.

Al Miller of Roseville, Mich., oldest starter at 43, will take off beside Rindt, youngest at 25 but No. 2 ranking Grand Prix driver last year. Hulme currently leads this world road racing circuit. The drivers were assembled at noon today for their final instructions and review of the rules, with emphasis on a clean start. Sixteen cars tangled last year only yards beyond the starting line, eliminating 11 but causing no serious injuries.

The "500 Festival," a series of race-connected events ranging from a gin rummy tournament to the Governor's Ball, reached its climax Sunday with the nationally televised Festival parade. The parade drew almost as many spectators as the race, in which upwards of 300,000 spectators will be packed into the 433-acre Speedway.

International Tennis Meet Bogs Down

PARIS (AP) — The French International Tennis Tournament was bogged down in a major traffic jam today and tournament officials were scrambling around in search of auxiliary courts in hopes of getting the rain-disrupted event back on schedule.

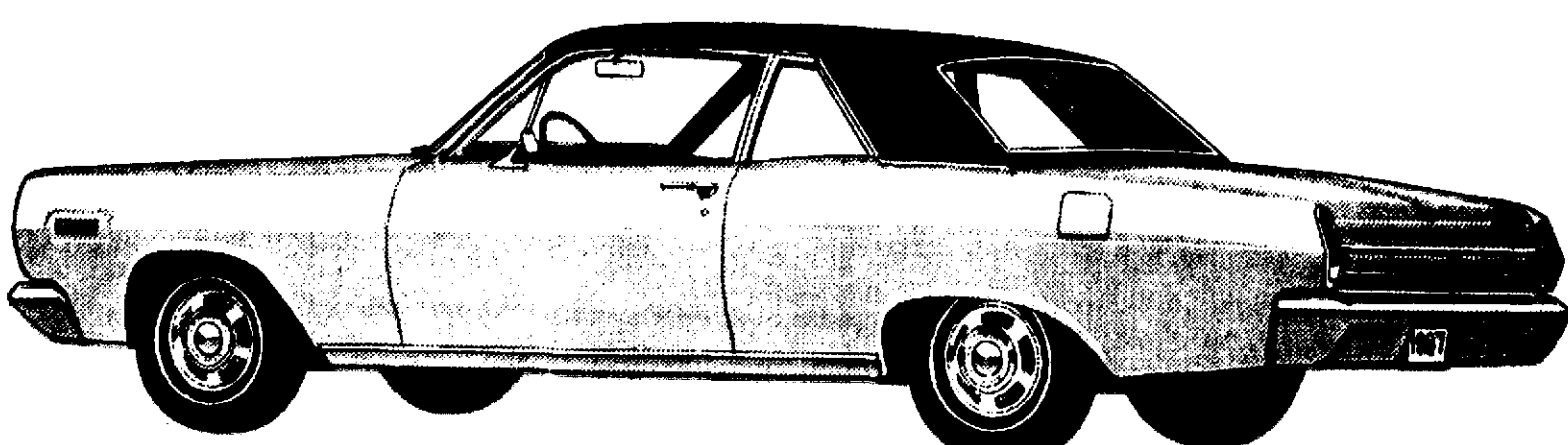

A third day of rain within a week threw the schedule completely off course Sunday. Only three previously-postponed men's doubles matches and eight women's singles were completed.

Rosemary Casals of San Francisco advanced to the third round, but two other U.S. women, Kathy Blake and Tori Fretz, were eliminated. With most of the best American men competing with the Davis Cup team in Mexico, only a handful of U.S. men entered, and all have been eliminated.

Buckpasser Returns to Competition

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Buckpasser, who has reached the status of a Super-Horse, returns to competition on Tuesday to highlight the Memorial Day holiday and racing's biggest week of the year.

About one million persons are expected to wager close to $100 million at the nation's tracks today through Saturday.
Ogden Phipps' famed 4-year-old son of Tom Fool will make his first start since Jan. 14 in the $100,000-added Metropolitan Mile at Aqueduct. His return overshadows the $100,000 Jersey Derby at Garden State on Tuesday and the $125,000 Belmont Stakes at Aqueduct and the $100,000 Californian at Hollywood Park on Saturday.
Johnny Nerud, trainer of Dr. Fager, put the tag of Super-horse on Buckpasser. Dr. Fager, who won the Withers Mile in a blazing 1:33 4-5 in his last race, had been expected to test Buckpasser in the Met Mile. Nerud said, however, he would start Dr. Fager in the Jersey Derby.
"I don't want to hook up with Buckpasser," Nerud said. "He's a Super-Horse."
Buckpasser, who suffered a quartercrack in his right front hoof last Jan. 14 at Santa Anita, will be going after his 15th straight triumph. Off his sparkling 1:21 2-5 public workout last Monday for seven furlongs he likely will be the odds-on choice. He will carry top weight of 130 pounds including jockey Braulio Baeza.

Dr. Fager, who passed up the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, will be pitted against In Reality, the winner of the Florida Derby and the runner-up in the Preakness, in the Jersey Derby. The race will help determine whether Dr. Fager can win at a longer distance than one mile. The Jersey Derby is at 1 1/4 miles.
Proud Clarion, the Kentucky Derby winner, and Damascus, the Preakness winner, clash again in the Belmont Stakes, the last of the Triple crown events for 3-year-olds at the testing distance of 1 1/2 miles.

Common Mkt. Progress Ruled Out
By GERALD MILLER
ROME (AP) — Rome welcomed the first Common Market summit meeting in six years today with inauguration of a new executive combine expected to be the only achievement.
French President Charles de Gaulle's opposition to Britain's application for membership and to proposals for political unity of the six Common Market members ruled out progress on those two major issues.
That left little but formalities and ceremonies for the two-day meeting on the 10th anniversary of the formation of the European Economic Community.
However, De Gaulle was expected to go along with the inauguration of a 14-member executive combine to replace the three separate executive commissions that now exist for the Economic Community, the European Atomic Energy Commission, and the European Coal and Steel pool.
De Gaulle also exerted his will here by opposing the appointment of West German Walter Hallstein to head the new combine. Hallstein is the long-time chairman of the EEC commission and a champion of the kind of political unity De Gaulle opposes.
It was strongly rumored that the appointment will go to an Italian, or to Belgium's Jean Rey, who distinguished himself as the Common Market representative in the Kennedy Round tariff negotiations in Geneva.
Only ceremonial functions were planned for the opening day. The only working session, lasting three hours, is scheduled Tuesday morning.
Hanging over the conference was fear of war in the Middle East. But there was no indication that the Common Market leaders could do anything to lessen tension between Israel and the Arabs.

Looks for Help From Republicans
By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Johnson administration supporters are looking to Republicans on the Senate Labor Committee to supply votes needed for approval of the President's plan to avert a threatened railroad strike.
It will take nine votes to get the President's bill out of the committee. Administration strategists hope GOP members will supply five of these, perhaps six.
Several of the 10 Democrats on the panel have indicated strong reservations about the plan in view of bitter opposition to it from the six shopcraft unions involved the entire AFL-CIO.
The bill is before the Labor subcommittee, which plans to start work on it in closed session June 5.
Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., the subcommittee chairman, told a reporter he expects many amendments to be offered and said he might have some himself.
On the House side, the measure is being handled by the Commerce Committee. Several Democrats on that committee also have voiced reservations about the bill.
The strike deadline in the dispute has been postponed twice through adoption of interim measures by Congress. The strike could begin June 19.
Johnson's proposal calls for a further delay of 90 days with intensive mediation efforts through this period. But if no settlement can be reached, the recommendations of a special five-member board to be set up under the bill would become binding for as long as 15 months.
Administration lobbyists say they are confident of five Republican votes on the Senate panel and may win that of the other Republican member, Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York. Javits has said he may have no alternative but to vote for it, even though he feels it clearly amounts to compulsory arbitration. Administration officials insist it is not.
But the New Yorker said he wants to explore other possibilities, including limited seizure of the railroads by the government.

On the Democratic side, administration strategists say they are certain only of Sen. Lister Hill of Alabama, the committee chairman, and Sen. Wayne Morse, Oregon, sponsors of Johnson's resolution in the Senate; and Sen. Jennings Randolph of West Virginia.
Other Democrats on the committee, including Yarborough, have said they fear the President's plan is weighted on the side of management—as the unions have charged.

Travelers Chalk Up Win No. 13

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three stolen bases in the first inning led to a 5-1 Texas League decision over Albuquerque here Sunday as the Arkansas Travelers chalked up the 13th victory over their last 17 games.
Bobby Dews led off Arkansas' first inning with a single, stole second, advanced on a wild pitch and scored on a double hit by Billy Wolff.

The Travelers pecked away at Leon Everitt, garnering RBI hits by Bill Bracy in the third, Art Deras in the fifth and Joe Hague in the sixth.
Ken Washington homered in the seventh off Ted Friel, giving the Dodgers their lone run. Friel wilted in the 95-degree heat and Jerry Robertson came in as relief, striking out Bill Sudakis with the bases loaded. Robertson then pitched two more hitless innings.
In other Texas League action, Austin rallied from a three-run deficit to whip Dallas-Fort Worth 5-3. Wet grounds forced postponement of the El Paso-Amarillo game.

Arkansas is now a game and a half behind league-leading Amarillo and a full game ahead of third-place El Paso.

U.S. Netters Take Lead in Mexico

By JACK RUTLEDGE
MEXICO CITY (AP) — The United States, buoyed by the doubles victory of Carl Graebner and Marty Riessen, took a 2-1 lead into today's decisive singles matches against Mexico and U.S. Captain George MacCall confidently predicted success in the North American Davis Cup finals.

"We're in the driver's seat now," MacCall chortled after Graebner and Riessen — as expected — stormed to a straight-set victory over Rafael Osuna and Joaquin Loyo Mayo Sunday. The scores were 6-4, 6-3, 7-

5. "We'll win it now," MacCall said. "I won't predict whether it will be 4-1 or 3-2, but we'll win it for sure."
Arthur Ashe, an Army lieutenant from Richmond, Va., and the American ace, plays Osuna in the first of today's matches on the red clay center court at the Chapultepec Sport Center.
They'll be followed by the babies of the two teams, 20-year-old Cliff Richey, San Angelo, Tex., and 19-year-old Marcelo Lara in the final singles match — and possibly the decisive one — in the best-of-5 series.

The two teams split the opening singles Saturday, Osuna rallying for a five-set triumph over Richey and Ashe brushing aside Lara in straight sets.
The doubles victory was expected. Graebner, of Beachwood, Ohio, and Riessen, from Evansville, Ind., were teammates at Northwestern, have been playing together for years, twice won the U.S. Clay Courts doubles title and rank among the best doubles teams in the world.

Studies Continue on Unexplained Crib Deaths

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Sudden unexplained deaths
or crib deaths have occurred
in infants between the ages
of 1 and 12 months since the dawn of history. It is estimated that 25,000 such deaths
occur annually in this country. The cause is still a puzzle to scientists but intensive studies of the subject
are being made. It has been shown that most of these deaths occur in infants between the ages of two and four months. More boys than girls are victims and the deaths usually occur between midnight and 6 a.m.

Babies who weighed less than 5½ pounds at birth are more likely than those who weighed more to be found
dead of an unknown cause.
Other observations that may point to causative factors are
an increased number of crib
deaths in cold weather and a greater susceptibility where
living conditions are crowded.

Autopsies have shown a beginning pneumonia in some victims but never a sufficient involvement to account for the death. Some victims
showed evidence of adrenal deficiency but no cause for deficiency could be found. The mothers of some of the infants said that the baby had a slight cold on the day before he died but the autopsies
failed to show that this could have caused death. Another theory—that an allergy to cow's milk is the cause—has been advanced by some observers but there is as yet no
proof that this is a factor.

It is clear, however, that there must be a cause and that it will eventually be found. Autopsies are an important means to this end. It is equally clear that the
deaths are in no sense a result of carelessness on the part of the parents or attendants.

Q—My niece, 9, has lupus

erythematous. After a remission that lasted four years, it has come back. What is the cause and what are the usual symptoms? How long do the attacks usually last? Is there any cure?

A—The cause is unknown.
The disease is chronic and usually starts with a butterfly-shaped skin eruption that covers the bridge of the nose
and the adjacent areas of the face on both sides. The disease may also affect the
joints, heart and kidneys.
Duration of the attacks and
remissions does not follow
any consistent pattern. At present there is no known
cure but, in some victims, the disease can be controlled with
the use of fluocinolone. For the latest developments write

Oswald: "Maybe we ought to devote a week to some
match point hands."

Jim: "Do you have a good example how a declarer can gain a top by picking up over-
tricks?"

Oswald: "Here's one that helped Jay Cohen and Steve Robinson of Washington win
the Masters' Pairs at the Mid-
Atlantic Regionals in Durham, N.C. Jay who sat North had to make a decision at his first turn to bid. A double of West's two spade overcall
would represent a sure profit
and possibly more than game
would net. Actually, West
would only have gone down
three tricks for 500 points
and three no-trump bid and
made would be worth 600."

Jim: "I imagine that some declarers made only three no-
trump. How many overtricks did Steve make?"

Oswald: "Just two over-tricks but he made them without taking any risk at all.
He won the spade opening
with his king and promptly
led a low diamond from his hand. He had nothing to lose by this play and when the low diamond forced West's ace, Steve could have claimed
five odd on a squeeze but it
was easier to play the hand
out."

Jim: "Suppose I run over the rest of the play as Steve must have handled it. Assuming a second spade play
by West, Steve would win
with dummy's ten, lead a diamond and let East hold the trick. Assuming a heart return, South would win in dummy, discard a diamond
on the ace of spades, come to
his hand with a heart, cash
the king of diamonds, cash
his last heart and watch East
scurry."

Oswald: "East would have discarded three hearts on spades. He would have to discard the high diamond or unguard his jack of clubs. The squeeze would have worked
just as well if West had held four clubs because he would have had to unguard the club
to hold a spade."

Q—The bidding has been:

A—Bid two spades. There is no hurry because on this sequence the two-spade bid is a force.

A New 'Lone Eagle' for '67

A number of planned
objectives have been set for James Bede's
solo nonrefueled
flight around the world in a single-
engine converted sail-plane. One is fulfillment of a lifelong
dream for the 34-
year-old Cleveland
aeronautical engineer. But the long flight may also be a
proving ground in
the study of human
and equipment endurance over the 24-
800-mile trip.

SUPPORT WHEELS shown in the test flight above
protect the 63-foot wing span from damage during take-
off. The craft carries 565 gallons of fuel, shown below, for the nonstop trip from Cleveland to Cleveland, around the globe. The flight is expected to take about 6½ days,
with Bede catching two-hour naps before being awakened by an alarm system. The cockpit, below left, will provide room for him to stretch out, and even do push-ups for exercise. Space officials are interested in seeing how a man of average physical condition can withstand
the rigors of extended flight.

Television and Radio

By GENE HANDSAKER
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — So you
sat down and wrote an angry
letter suggesting changes in the television program. Did it have any effect?

Probably not.
Testimony from producers at
all three major networks indicates viewers' letters rarely
influence program content.

Says Paul Monash of ABC's
"Peyton Place": "We get an average of 1,000 letters a week,
about 20 of them with story
suggestions and ideas about
characters: 'If anything happens to so-and-so I'll never watch the show again.' 'Let Rodney and Betty get married.'
'They give us an idea of what
some people in the audience are thinking, but basically I have to rely on my own instincts.'"

Has Monash ever followed a viewer's suggestion?
"Not really. For one thing,
the shows are planned and written 15 weeks ahead of the air
date. What the audience is responding to is something that already has been determined.
"Secondly, we're not allowed to adopt ideas for nothing. We could possibly be open to a lawsuit."

Next is Perry Lafferty, CBS-TV programming chief in Hollywood:

"If you get a number of comments along the same line —
like 50 letters a week, or 150 or 200 — and if the producer thinks
it's a good suggestion, they may have some effect."

"The first time we used a little girl on the Danny Kaye show
we got a lot of mail, which probably stepped up our use of her."
"Generally we're not influenced by derogatory mail,
because we expect it anyway.
With a sketch involving drinking, or with beautiful but low-
cut costumes, you know you'll get mail."

Gene Roddenberry, producers
of NBC's "Star Trek," recalls:
"At pickup time we were in danger of not being renewed,
and NBC got a flood of mail. It
was bound to have some effect,
but I don't think the network
could be pushed into anything."
The show, filming for next season, draws about 4,600 letters a week, a surprising number, Roddenberry says, from schoolteachers, professors and scientists. They offer compliments, challenge scientific slip-
ups or seek information.

Hall of Famer Dies at 74

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP)—J. L. (NKK) Carter, a member of the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame who quarterbacked the Ouachita Baptist football team that defeated the University of Arkansas and the University of Mississippi during an undefeated season in 1914, died here Sunday at the age of 74.

The retired merchant, inducted into the hall of fame in 1965, also was a three-time winner of the state senior golf championship.

Funeral services are scheduled at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Arkadelphia.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

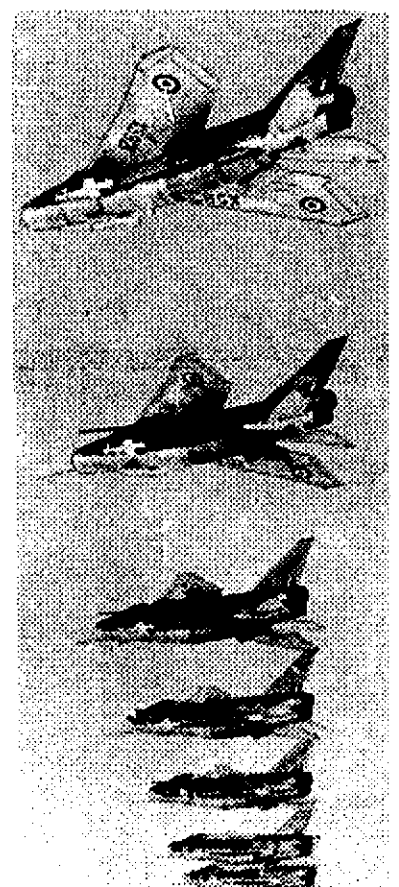

Continuing a tradition that began with Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson, thousands of volunteer weathermen daily report temperature and precipitation readings to the U.S. Weather Bureau, says The World Almanac. The volunteers, mostly amateur meteorologists throughout the country, help the bureau maintain accurate information on the climate of the nation.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

HE EXPLAINS THE VOID BETWEEN THE SEXES

Dear Helen:

I'm just a tall, light and not particularly handsome American male, 33, and a bachelor until next summer. But because I've worked all my adult life in two dozen foreign countries, I think I can explain the ballooning void between the sexes in America. These "career girls" who wonder why men ignore them, should look to themselves. We're scared of them, that's why — of the power they wield as American women with equal rights in bed and out of it. But we're not running, we're just losing interest. They seem to fulfill so few of the traits which once clearly separated them as Woman. First they got the vote; they weakened diplomacy in dealing with world of men. Then sexual equality — and mutual disrespect from both sides of the fence. Now, indistinguishable attire — the men, tired of women aping their styles, have begun to copy theirs. We get more Adam and Eve drop-outs every day. Sometimes I feel like smoking a banana peel myself! There is a gold mine of knowledge for both sexes south of the Equator: Australia is one of the happiest examples of compatibility between the sexes, and New Zealand is the worst. America is only slightly better off.

Only in New Zealand and America of all the nations where I've "dated" has woman become "equal" with her male counterpart. And in each the women are uniquely dissatisfied and unhappy — and alone. Mainly the "playboy" type accepts their favors; real men want something less like themselves.

Let me suggest that, right or wrong, it IS a man's world. To women I say: "Get out of politics. Don't try to impress us with a poorly-worn veneer of 'education' when what we want is honesty, intelligence, and a gentle voice at night to temper the wickedness of the day. For heaven's sake, wear dresses, not slacks. Don't pose spread; legged like those breathless freaks of 'high fashion'; bulge where we are lean; wear your hair long and not stringy; straight. Capitalize on the infinite charm of high heels. Believe what you wish, but don't contradict us. Be tactful, gracious, quiet, unassuming. Above all, be completely female, and we'll come back to you."

TARZAN

Dear Tarzan:

....As slave masters? Brace yourself, chum. You're gonna get it.

p.s. your fiancée is Australian, I presume?—H.

Dear Helen:

"LIVING IT UP" she wrote, "while I'm in my hometown, I'm married, but when I'm out of town on business, my wife is married..." seems to typify today's "family man." So long as he is discreet he feels, there is nothing wrong with "acting single."

I can understand this desire to be single as I feel that marriage is an artificial state imposed by society. However, what disgusts me is the hypocritical manner in which men handle this situation. If they feel compelled to get married, for business or social reasons, they should either—

1. Fulfill their contract and stand by their vows, or
2. Have an honest agreement with their wives before marriage—giving them "travel privileges."

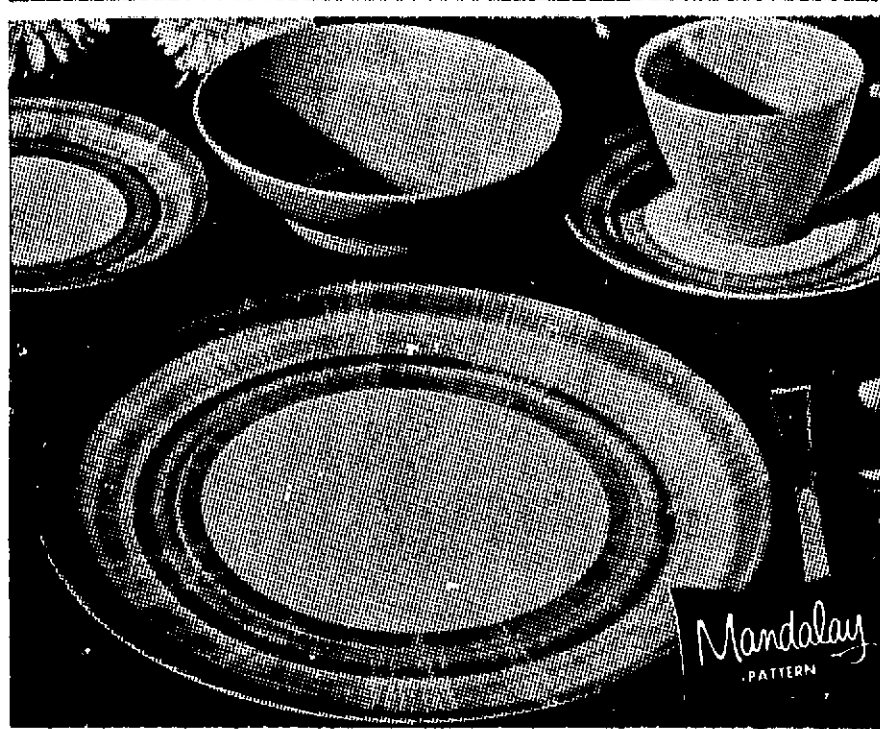

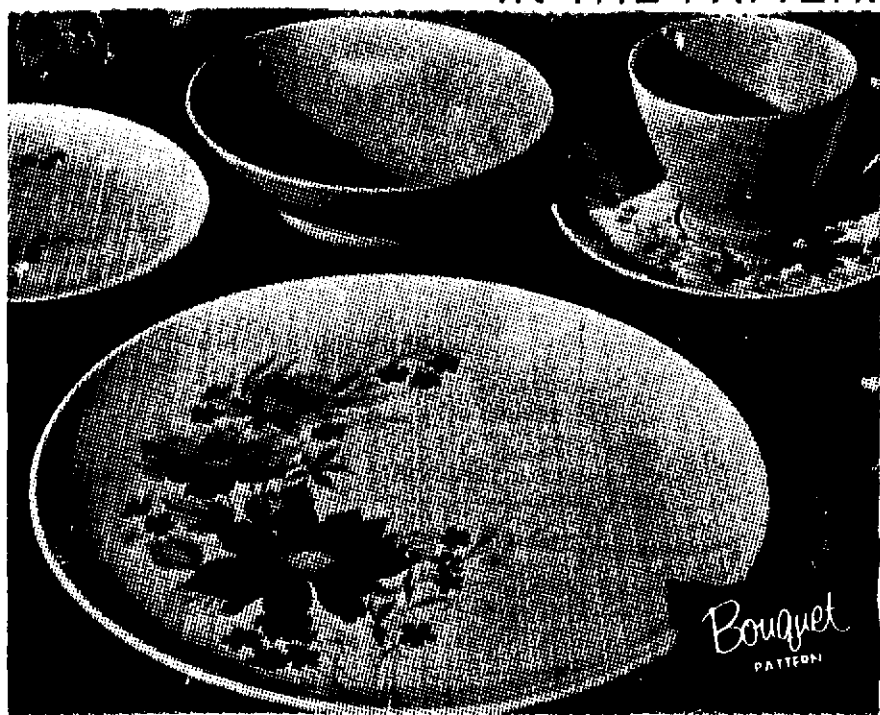

The contract should not give "playing around rights" to man alone. It should be reciprocal, and this is the rub, so far as our noble family man is concerned. L.I.U. said it all: His wife is married, not him.

I've had enough of this double standard stuff I've seen so many married men going out on their wives that I feel it is beginning to be the norm, not just the surreptitious activity of a few, and I think it is time this is brought out in the open. Let's have a little honesty in the country, even if it's only honest, open, mutual unfaithfulness. — LIVING IT UP TOO, BUT SINGLE

Dear Liv: I'm all for honesty, too, but let's make it open, honest, mutual FAITHFULNESS... and really, there's a lot of it still around. When you're "LIVING IT UP" you seldom get a chance to meet the truly - married kind, yes?—H.

This is the finest coupe made in America

This is the Lincoln Continental Coupe. It is the only two door hardtop we make.

Other makers of luxury automobiles sell three or four variations of a coupe. But this is not the Continental way.

We take all the good things we can offer in a luxury motor car, and we put them all in our coupe.

When you own a Continental, you own a complete car. The practice of putting a little more of this, and a little less than that in look-alike variations, is a game we don't care to play.

If you're tired of playing games, consider Lincoln Continental. Unquestionably, the finest coupe made in America.

You Can't Talk Your Way Out of Trouble in Debt

Not all of our readers agree with the editor's position on the ever-growing federal debt. Nevertheless we had majority opinion with us when we tried to block construction of Hope's new $400,000 federal and post office building, which the government built anyway; and local people definitely rejected a street-paving project which contained a $25,000 federal grant—a project now being rewritten to exclude federal aid and therefore acceptable.

The minority view of these things is "Other cities are getting the federal money—why shouldn't Hope?"

But I think you should spell out public morality by what happens in the place where you live—not by how much other people steal in other cities. Little Rock is wasting millions of federal dollars on a scandalous "urban renewal" program, compared with which the Hope offering is merely a plateful of crumbs. But if towns like Hope reject these "crumbs" the backlash will eventually smash the big steal going on in the big cities. I am not alone, nor is Hope, in standing steadfast for common honesty and national security—cities like Fort Worth and Fort Smith have repeatedly rejected "urban aid" in referendums.

Just how important is this business of standing steadfast?

Last week the financial plight of the federal government was so desperate that the House Ways & Means Committee felt compelled to recommend an increase of 29 billions in the federal debt limit, establishing a new ceiling of 365 billion.

The public debt was 320 billion at the close of 1966, so obviously we are sinking pretty fast when a 29-billion expansion has to be authorized with the year not yet at the halfway mark.

Have you any idea what all these "crumbs" offered Hope and other courageous and loyal towns add up to? They are part of a domestic spending program that is gradually destroying the worth of the American dollar and cannibalizing our savings in Social Security. Make no mistake about this. It is the domestic "welfare and grant" program that is damaging us more than Viet Nam or any other war. War merely gets us into the habit of spending money we don't have—the damage is done in peacetime when we go right on spending without the justification of war. Here is our American debt record in brief:

In 1915 the U. S. owed only a little more than 1 billion dollars. By 1920 World War I had put it up to 24 billion. By 1930 this had been reduced to 16 billion. F. D. Roosevelt's panic operations in the 1930's advanced it to 40 billion by 1939—on the eve of World War II. In World War II the debt reached a peak of 269 billion in 1946. But it didn't drop with the coming of peace, as it should have. Instead, it has gone right on climbing until today it crowds a new ceiling of 365 billion, or will do so before the year is out.

You have three options as a voting American citizen: (1) Authorize a tax increase to cover government expense and reduce the debt, in which case you wouldn't have much left from your pay-check; (2) Do nothing about it now and risk confiscation later on, in which case you would be left with nothing at all; or (3) Beat every federal candidate who refuses to go along with you on an expenditure-cutting program.

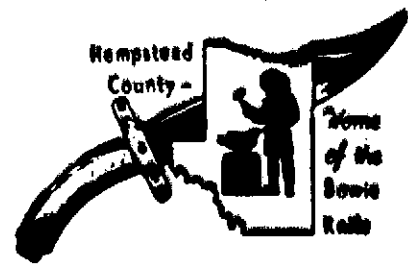

This newspaper stood up under fire on the post office and paving questions, and, when the chips were down, we helped send free-wheeling Congressman Jim Trimble back to private life. This is your club to finding America's come-back trail.

Wrong Flag for a Short While

Admiral Speaks Ouachita

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP)—Rear Adm. James W. Kelly, chief of chaplains for the U.S. Navy and a 1933 graduate of Ouachita Baptist, returned to his alma mater Sunday as the speaker at commencement exercises for the university's 205 graduating seniors.

"Citizenship must not be viewed in terms of license," he told them. "Freedom is not the right to do what you choose, but rather the responsibility of choosing to do what is right."

"Please note that you cannot live on the heritage of faith and idealism built up by past generations, nor can you borrow someone else's faith."

"You must have ingrained in you the determination to support the principles of social justice, individual value and personal dignity."

Highway Accidents Claim Four

Traffic accidents claimed the lives of four persons in Arkansas during the holiday period that ends at midnight Tuesday.

Henry Lee Johnson, 21, of Lake Village, died at a Eudora hospital Sunday of injuries received Saturday when the car in which he was a passenger skidded out of control and was struck broadside by another vehicle on U.S. 65 at Eudora.

John Albert Hill Jr., 11, of Bassett (Mississippi County), stepped in the path of car and was killed Saturday afternoon on Arkansas 118 about two miles west of Bassett.

Virgil Huff, 46, of Fayetteville, was killed in a three-car collision Saturday morning on U.S. 71 at Fayetteville.

Friday night, a car collided with a tractor-trailer at the junction of U.S. 70 and Arkansas 33 near DeValls Bluff, claiming the life of Travis Don Harrison, 17, of Carlisle.

Picked Collins

Because of Friendship

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, whose selection of Dotson Collins of Huntsville as state labor commissioner reportedly displeased the state AFL-CIO, said Sunday that he had chosen Collins because he was a personal friend of his.

Rockefeller was questioned about Dotson by J. Bill Becker, president of the AFL-CIO, on a radio and television program produced by the labor organization.

Said Rockefeller: "It's only natural that if you have three equally qualified men, you're going to pick the one you know."

The AFL-CIO had submitted two names to the governor for the job. It reportedly was disgruntled with the selection of Collins because he is a member of the Teamsters Union. The teamsters do not belong to the AFL-CIO.

Rockefeller also said on the radio that he thought Arkansas' economy had grown to a point where a minimum wage law was needed.

Mrs. H. L. Hanegan, who has been the home economics teacher at Hope High School since 1932, is retiring with the close of the 1967 school year.

Supt. James H. Jones, on behalf of the Board of Education, presented her with a silver tray as "a token of appreciation for faithful service to Hope High School" at a faculty coffee in the home ec cottage Wednesday morning.

"Miss Ruth," a graduate of the University of Tennessee, came to Hope High School from Galloway College, her first teaching assignment. She was the second teacher to use the newly constructed cottage, the first of its kind in Arkansas. Except for two and one-half years, Mrs. Hanegan has taught the young ladies of Hope and Hempstead County the graces of homemaking since 1932.

Mrs. Jack Fielding and Mrs. Royce Smith presided at the serving table which was covered with a cutwork linen cloth. An arrangement of spring flowers was used as the centerpiece. On the table, among other serving pieces, an unusual silver holder contained silver fruit knives and was a wedding gift to Mrs. Hanegan's parents.

Mrs. Hanegan will continue to make her home in Hope.

Arkansas Bombs Road

SKYHAWK (AP)—U.S. Navy A4 Skyhawk pilots reported they heavily damaged a Vietnamese highway bridge at Xon Trung, 12 miles west of Vinh, Sunday.

Lt. Cmdr. John Kirkpatrick of Sheridan, Ark., the flight leader, said the bridge was "a good-sized one." He added that the pilots encountered antiaircraft fire in the area.

Hope Girl Honored Nationally

Patricia A. Maxwell, student at Yerger High School, has recently been named a finalist in the National Achievement Scholarship Program sponsored by the United Negro College Fund.

The examination was administered nationally to high school students. Because of her rank in the contest, she has been offered scholarships from many nationally known colleges and universities, among them are included Illinois Wesleyan, Tuskegee Institute, Ouachita, Howard U., Hendrix, SMU, LSU, Michigan State, Columbia U. and University of Denver.

Because of family customs, Patricia will join her brother and sister at Bishop College, Dallas for the summer session.

Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeCoy Maxwell, plans to enroll in the School of Business. She has received a $1600 academic scholarship to cover tuition, room and board which will be renewed each year if she maintains an overall "B" average each semester.

Patricia was an honor graduate and a member of the National Honor Society, Girls Scouts, Science Club, Hi-Light Staff, and President of the Student Council.

Terrorists, Red Guns Attacking

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — Communist gunners scattered mortar shells over the ancient Buddhist city of Hue early today and terrorists followed up by bombing a downtown hotel housing members of the Polish-Indian-Canadian control commission.

The mortar and terror attacks killed four persons and wounded 17, including a driver for the International Control Commission. Although the hotel was badly damaged and partly burned, the 10 commission members staying there escaped unhurt. No Americans were hurt.

The mortar attacks hit the U.S. advisory compound in the city, the adjoining South Vietnamese sector headquarters, a South Vietnamese officers' club and a residential area. The mortars also cut a line used by the Voice of America transmitter outside the city but broadcasts were not interrupted.

Hue, the old imperial capital of Vietnam, has about 120,000 people and is a traditional center of dissidence in the northern provinces of Vietnam, which have been under extreme Communist pressure. It is also crisscrossed with refugees, many of them Viet Cong sympathizers.

The Communists sneaked their mortars into position only three miles east of the city and opened fire about 1 a.m. Half an hour later they cut loose with a second barrage, firing in all about 65 rounds of 82mm shells.

During the mortar attacks, terrorists got into the Huang Giang Hotel, one of the town's largest, and set off satchel charges on the ground floor. Then they spread gasoline and set fire to the building, which was about 60 per cent destroyed.

The casualties included 16 civilians wounded. The others were South Vietnamese troops or policemen.

Thinks GOPs Will Be Hard to Beat

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sterling Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock, 1967 speaker of the House and a potential Democratic gubernatorial nominee, says it will take party loyalty and financing to beat the Republicans in 1968.

Republican Winthrop Rockefeller beat Democrat Jim Johnson last year because the GOP was well-financed and highly organized, he told the Democratic Women's Club of Arkansas Saturday.

Prospects for a Democratic victory in 1968 are looking much better now than they were two months ago, when he said he thought the Democrats would stand a better chance in 1970 than in 1968, he told the women.

Can't Take Away U.S. Citizenship

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today that an American's citizenship cannot be taken away without his consent.

"In our country the people are sovereign and the government cannot sever its relationship to the people by taking away their citizenship," Justice Hugo L. Black said in the landmark 5-4 decision.

In the case at hand the court specifically wiped out the government's power to strip an American of his citizenship for voting in a foreign election.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court gave police more power today to seize evidence from a suspect's home and use it at his criminal trial.

With the precedents-shattering 8-1 ruling the court threw out a 46-year-old distinction between "mere evidence," which the 1921 Supreme Court had held may not be seized, and other forms of evidence which police have been free to take when in "hot pursuit" of a suspect.

Officials Believe That Israel Will Have to Launch a Land Attack

By BOB HORTON

ATHENS (AP) — Officers of the U.S. 6th Fleet believe Israel will launch a major land assault into the Sinai Peninsula if Egypt sinks a ship bound for Israel in the Gulf of Aqaba.

The Israelis have virtually no naval capability to compete against Egyptian 150mm guns controlling the mouth of the gulf, their link to East Africa, Asia and Iranian oil.

U.S. Navy officers therefore expect Israel would use its highly mobile army to penetrate into and eventually gain control of the entire Egyptian peninsula—breaking Egypt's grip on the Gulf. Elath, Israel's only southern port, is at the head of the gulf.

Although the port handles only 10 to 15 per cent of Israel's shipping, Elath receives virtually all of Israel's oil from the Middle East. Because of Israel's great reliance on mechanized movement of troops, oil is a strategic resource.

Israel has only a semblance of a naval force in the gulf to contend with Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's proclaimed blockade against Israeli shipping.

U.S. Navy officers credit Israel with two PT-boats and two medium landing craft in the gulf.

Egypt, on the other hand, has positioned a relatively strong naval force in the Red Sea—two submarines, about 12 PT-boats, a destroyer and a minesweeper. Although it was not immediately confirmed, Panamanian or Mauritanian oil freighters are said to be en route to Elath. Navy officers do not believe Egypt will permit a tanker to pass.

Pope Names 27, Cardinals, 5 Americans

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI named 27 new cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church today, including four Americans. They brought the membership of the Sacred College of Cardinals to 120, the largest in the history of the Church.

The new American princes of the church are: Archbishop John Joseph Krol of Philadelphia, Pa.; Patrick Louis O'Boyle of Washington, D.C.; John Patrick Cody of Chicago and the Rt. Rev. Francis G. Brennan, who presides over the Sacred Rota, the Vatican tribunal that deals with marriage cases.

This gives the United States nine cardinals, the largest number it has ever had. The largest number previously was six, after Pope Paul's first consistory in February 1965, but Albert Cardinal Meyer of Chicago died Sept. 4, 1965.

Egypt Fires on Israeli Farmers

BETRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Egyptian mortars and machine guns opened fire today on Israeli farmers and soldiers near the Gaza Strip, an army spokesman charged in Tel Aviv. No casualties were reported.

While the firing ceased after 40 minutes, the incident served to heighten the feeling of imminent crisis in the Middle East.

The feeling of imminence grew Sunday when President Gamal Abdel Nasser announced he would never retreat from his blockade of Israeli shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba. Israel's premier, Levi Eshkol, declared his army is ready to fight aggression, including a blockade.

The firing of Israeli soil from Gaza apparently was begun by Egyptian irregulars and members of the Palestine Liberation Army. They are believed manning the front lines with Egyptian regular father back.

It was the first such incident reported along the Gaza Strip since the U.N. Emergency Force pulled out of frontier positions last week at Egypt's request.

The army spokesman in Tel Aviv made no mention of Israeli return fire into the trip.

The crisis originally was brought on by a series of border raids on the Syrian front and by Israel's threat to retaliate against Syria. Syria is an ally of Egypt, which promptly sent men and armor to the frontier and asked the U.N. peacekeeping force to withdraw.

Syria's chief of state, Nureddine Atassi, flew to Moscow to discuss with Communist party Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexi N. Kosygin the Arab-Israeli confrontation.

Nasser warned at a news conference Sunday he will close the Suez Canal to any nation backing Israel in case of war with the Arabs.

The United States and Britain had hoped diplomatic pressure would persuade Nasser to reopen the gulf before an Egyptian attack on some ship resulted in war.

But Nasser told his news conference he would not retreat "even as much as one inch" from his blockade. In case of a challenge to Egyptian sovereignty over the Strait of Tiran, the entrance to the gulf, "we will inflict punishment that will go beyond the imagination of the aggressor, no matter who he is," Nasser declared.

He asked the United States to recognize Egypt's cause as just and remain neutral.

"We are not speaking of a settlement and peace with Israel," he said. "Israel was set up by aggression and we must restore the rights of the Palestinian people. We shall be patient for one or ten years but we

Places West Road Cost at $185 Million

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An engineering study conducted jointly by firms in Oklahoma and Illinois indicates that it would cost almost $185 million to build a four-lane, controlled-access toll road down the western border of Arkansas.

The 21-county Western Arkansas Development Association, which contracted for the study, wants a toll road that would join similar pike to connect Kansas City, Mo., and New Orleans.

H. E. Bailey, chief engineer for the study, said estimates for the 279-mile Arkansas route were based on 250 feet of right of way and two 24-foot pavements separated by a 15-foot raised median. He said he used a design speed of 70 miles per hour in planning the curves.

Bailey said the route would follow U.S. Highway 71, with a swing westward to avoid the Boston Mountains between Fayetteville and Fort Smith. He said it would cut U.S. 71's distance by about 37 miles, but that the saving in driving time would be at least 2½ hours because of the proposed road's straightness and design.
